Mrs. Florence "Flo" Schornstein has lived at The Carrollton for 1.5 years. She is the proud mother of three daughters and recently celebrated becoming a great-grandmother. Mrs. Flo has a distinguished background, having graduated from Isidore Newman and Newcomb with honors before serving as an executive for the City Parks and Zoning Commission. In addition, she was a major organizer for numerous charitable organizations, including The United Way. Flo thoroughly enjoys participating in Prize Bingo and she loved having her best friend since 10 years old, Carol as her neighbor. The two of them can always be found sitting together enjoying all of our musical events here at The Carrollton.
